Our Lady Of Seven Sorrows

Our Mission Statement: "If we live by the truth and in love, we shall grow in all ways into Christ, who is the head by whom the whole body is fitted and joined together, every joint adding its own strength, for each separate part to work according to its function. So the body grows until it has built itself up, in love." - Ephesians 4:15-16

MARY'S MANY SORROWS

While many pray to Mary during the month of May, September is also a time to reflect on the life of the Blessed Mother. September 15th is the feast of Our Lady of Sorrows. When we think of the life of Mary we truly remember how much it was filled with anguish. As a girl she is asked by God to become the mother of Jesus. A miracle and sacred responsibility bestowed on one so young. And through her life she suffered as a martyr. The feast in September is dedicated, in fact, to the spiritual martyrdom of Mary and her compassion with the suffering of her Son.

There are seven sorrows of Mary, depicted as seven arrows in 17th century art, they are:

1. The prophecy of Simeon, "You yourself shall be pierced with a sword so that the thoughts of many hearts may be laid bare." (Luke 2:35)
2. The flight into Egypt. "Get up, take the child and his mother and flee to Egypt." (Matthew 2:13)
3. Loss of the Child Jesus for three days, "You see that your father and I have been searching for you in sorrow." (Luke 2:48)
4. Mary meets Jesus on his way to Calvary.
5. Crucifixion and Death of Jesus, "Near the cross of Jesus there stood His mother." (John 19:25)
6. The body of Jesus being taken from the Cross.
7. The burial of Jesus.

These heart-wrenching scenes give the faithful a glimpse into the deep suffering of Mary as a mother. Many of us find the concept of standing at the foot of the cross as your child is lowered into your arms unimaginable. Truly during her life, Mary agonized. In each of these sorrows, though, Mary is steadfast in her belief that despite her suffering and her son's, the Lord's will must be done.

In 1815 Pope Pius VII approved a devotion to the Seven Sorrows. The readings for this feast day include the option of the Stabat Mater, a 13th century meditation to Mary that details her suffering during Christ's crucifixion. Its somber words detail Mary's pain but also invoke the hope all Christians hold for our everlasting life and renewal:

*O thou Mother! Fount of love!
Touch my spirit from above,
Make my heart with thine accord.*

*Make me feel as thou hast felt;
Make my soul to glow and melt
With love of Christ my Lord.*

For, it is with God's love and Mary's intercession that we will all be together with Christ in heaven.

Where is Our Source of Power when Sorrow is Intense?

I believe that Mary, our dear Mother, was able to go through all of her sorrows, not only because she had been personally visited by God through the Archangel Gabriel, but also because she obeyed the Word of God. She must have known Joshua 1:8, "This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it..." For Jesus, Mary, His mother, was most precious. Before He died so violently on the cross, He personally knew His mother's heart was bleeding as well. Out of compassion for her, He exhorted his beloved mother and John, His only apostle standing there at the cross, to care for each other: "Woman, behold your son!" And to John: "Behold your mother!" (John 19:26-27). Jesus knew that we would all have a need for a spiritual Mom and a model to follow when things appeared beyond our control.

All her life, Mary had gained her strength from God by waiting on Him. That implied that many times through her own grief and sorrow, she needed to shift her focus from her own limitations as a mother and from her own limitlessness as a human being. She needed to fix her eyes not on what was seen, but what was unseen. She had to trust and depend on the only source beyond herself: her God. She knew Psalm 121: "I will lift my eyes to the hills from whence comes my help? My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth..."

To practice such confidence and trust would allow us also to grow in the knowledge of God. In turn, this knowledge of God would lead us to a life of stronger and more diligent prayer that would give us the deep faith required of us as human beings, to surrender to Almighty God as the only way for us to "mount up with wings of eagles." Isaiah 40:30-31 had used these majestic birds as metaphors to see them connecting with the thermal updrafts and tap into the power of the wind to help them soar without effort, relying solely on the source of power beyond themselves. I believe that to gain strength from God, is to be dependent on Him, to surrender to Him and to see through God's perspective what it is to trust Him, depend on him and gain His strength as we exchange our limitlessness for God's unlimitlessness. God is the source of all power and we should tap on it for Him to guard us and shade us especially when sorrow is intense. "You will keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on You because he trusts in You" (Isaiah 26:3). Indeed the Lord is the source of all peace and strength in times of trouble.

WORDS FROM THE LORD – MAY, 2018

Editor's note: As you read, pray about, and reflect on the words spoken to us through the Prophetic Ministry, what is the Lord saying to you personally? Space for your response follows each prophecy.

May 31, 2018

interpretation of word given in tongues

My beloved ones, I am in your midst and I come in peace. The world needs My peace so desperately. I try and bring you peace but My people refuse My peace. They look everywhere else for peace, except coming to Me, I who am the one who can grant them that gift. They look for pleasure and amusement. They do not come to Me and tell Me that they love Me, and that they desire to walk with me. They do not give Me their hand so I can guide them. Why, My people? Why are My people afraid of Me? I am love, I am pure love. Why are they turning away from Me? If you truly love Me you will keep My commandments. What is the first commandment? Listen My people, I am the Lord your God, you shall have no other gods before Me.

My beloved ones, if you truly want to have peace you need to live by My commandments and you need to live by the commandment I gave you when I left you to return to My Father. I asked you to love one another as I have loved you. Do not judge one another, do not condemn one another, do not ignore one another. Accept your brothers and sisters where they are, as they are, and love them. Love them into wholeness.

Will you please, my beloved ones, listen to Me when I speak to you. Will you listen when I tell you how much I love you, how much I care about you? I desire for each and every one of you to spend eternity with Me, but I have given you a free will. You can choose heaven or the other place where you suffer in torment. Beloved ones, listen to My voice when I tell you I love you with an everlasting love. Come to Me, come and I will heal you, I will refresh you, I will strengthen you, but you must live by My commands. They are not just wishes for Me, but they are My commands, I command you to live by My statutes, by My commandments, and you will have peace, you will have joy, and you have all the blessings that you need, My beloved ones. Come, come to Me and I will refresh you because I am love, and mercy, joy, peace, patience, kindness, forgiveness. Come to Me. Come. I am waiting.

June 14, 2018

Interpretation of word given in tongues:

My beloved, each one of you is My beloved because I love you with an everlasting love. I make no distinction between sinner and sinner because you are all sinners. I died for each and every one of you. Do you truly love Me? Do you truly, truly love Me, because if you love Me you will keep My commandments. My commandments are not hard. They are not wearisome. If you truly love Me you have the desire to please Me.

The beginning of wisdom is fear of the Lord, not fear where you feel you will be punished, but rather out of love, fear that you don't want to offend Me. Do you really love Me? Do you love your brothers and sisters as I desire you to love, as I asked before I left the apostles to love one another as I love you. If you say you love Me who you cannot see, but you do not love your brother or your sister, you're not keeping My commandments because My commandments say that you must love one another as I love you.

Are you willing to do the ridiculous that people will mock you and say that you are fools? Because if you are willing to do the ridiculous, I can do the miraculous. When I walked the earth I was considered a mere human being. It was ridiculous to think that I would be able to feed five thousand men plus women and children with a few fishes and a few loaves, but as a mere man, the way they looked at Me, I fed them and twelve baskets were left over. Are you willing to do the ridiculous so that I can do the miraculous.

Are you willing to love your enemy, pray for your enemies, pray for their conversion? If you're doing that, you're keeping My commandments and My love will come through in you and through you. I love you with an everlasting love. Be not afraid. I am with you. I am faithful and I love you.

June 28, 2018

The Lord gave me a vision. The crucified Christ was walking amongst us, and He touched each and every one of us with His bloodied hands. He kissed each one of us with His lips that were so cracked and beaten. He looked at each and every one of us and His eyes filled with love, a perfect love, and all that He said, "Be still and know that I am here."

July 5, 2018

My beloved ones, I come in peace. I bring you peace in this world where there is no peace. I do not give you the peace that is fleeting. My peace is a true peace and I bring that to you, and I desire that you live in My peace. You just finished singing that you want to be a channel of peace, are you? Are you willing to be a source of peace or forgiveness, of caring, of touching, of healing or strengthening somebody. Are you willing to listen if someone comes to you and unburdens themselves. Are you willing to forgive as I forgive you?

Come My beloved, don't just say the words or sing the words, but live them. Live by those words. My servant Francis lived by them. He did not only sing them or speak them, he lived them, and I call you to live, live forgiveness, forgive those that have hurt you. You say the our father that I taught you. Do you mean the words when you say, 'forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us'? If you don't mean them, don't say them. But if you desire to forgive, ask Me to give you the grace to do so.

I love you so much, My beloved ones. I desire for each and every one to spend eternity with Me. So please, listen to My words and do as I ask you, because My love is everlasting and I am faithful. Be not afraid, I'm always with you.

June 19, 2018

The Lord gave me a vision. The church was filled with glory. A cloud descended and on the cloud was the Sacred Heart of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. The rays, the rays that were flowing from His heart was touching each and every one of us.

Oh My little ones, do not be afraid. I come to you with all of My heart. My little ones, so many of you are holding back, so many of you do not want to forgive, so many of you don't want to forget, so many of you are yes, filled with yourself. I'm asking you My little ones, repent to Me. Repent to Me all that is within you all that is not of Me and let Me fill you. Let Me fill you with My love, with My peace and My joy. Let the Spirit reign within you.

I come for all, not just a few but for all. Oh My little ones, if you only knew what awaits you. My little ones, draw closer to My heart. Tell Me all that you are feeling, all that you desire. Let Me fill you. Oh My little ones, I love you so much. I love you so much, I died for you. I died so that you would be free. My little ones, draw closer to Me. Let go of the world. Let go of self. Draw near to Me. I love you, I love you, I love you.

August 9, 2018

Oh My little ones, I desire to pour out My Spirit, but first of all you must empty yourself. Empty yourself of all of your sins, of all of your worries. Surrender all to Me. Let go everything. Surrender unforgiveness. Surrender hate. Surrender, My children. Empty, empty, empty all that you have within you so that I may fill you and fill you and fill you. I desire, My people, I desire a Holy Spirit people. I desire Spirit-filled people, not half filled, not a quarter filled, not three quarter filled, but all, overflowing. Oh My little ones, come, open up, surrender and let Me fill you with all that I have for you: all the love, all the mercy, everything. My Spirit rejoices when I fill you. My little ones, surrender all on this mountain top and let the fire burn deep within you as I fill you. Open now, surrender and receive for I am here and I love you. I love you. I love you.

August 23, 2018

interpretation of word given in tongues:

Be still, My beloved ones. Be still so that I can speak to your heart of hearts. You have praised Me for a while, now I desire to speak to your hearts. But I cannot speak to them unless you learn to be still, still to listen to Me so that I can teach you, so I can guide you and tell you that if you come to Me, come to Me in humility, come to Me when you praise Me with awe and wonder. Yes, My beloved ones, come with awe because I love you so much. I died for you, and if I would have to die for you again, I would do it because I love you with an everlasting love.

So come to Me in humility because if you come in pride I cannot help you. If you're self-righteous I cannot help you, if you're unforgiving I cannot help you, but if you're humble and willing to do My will, if you're willing to forgive and forget, to love your brothers and sisters as I have commanded you to love them, then, then I can work in your lives. Then I can touch you, then I can teach you and I can whisper My love to you, to your heart of hearts.

My beloved, I truly, truly love you with an everlasting love. Do not forget that. I died for you personally. I am your Saviour. I have loved you from all eternity and I will love you through all eternity. So My beloved ones, come to Me, learn to be still so that I can teach you, teach you My ways, My commands, and I will lead you into light, to goodness, to joy peace, forgiveness, healing and understanding. Come, My beloved ones, I'm here among you. I desire to touch each and every one of you. I desire to gift each and every one of you with My love, with My peace. So come My beloved ones, I embrace you. I hold you, I caress you. You are mine.

August 30, 2018

Oh My little ones, I am so very, very pleased. I love to hear your praises. I love to hear your hearts sing out to Me with love. My little ones, I am here. I am here for you to surrender all. Surrender all to me this night, all your pain, all your suffering, all your joys. Surrender all to me and let the light of My love shine deep within you, to fill every crevice of you, to fill you, to fill you, to fill you. How I love you My little ones. How I treasure each and every one of you. You are jewels, you're My precious stones. You are My children. My little ones surrender all to Me with a contrite heart. Give all to Me. I am here to receive all from you and to give all of Me to you. I love you My little ones, I love you, I love you, I love you.

Healing Ministry with Father Fernando Suarez, MMMP

July 31, 2018 has become imprinted in my mind as a real demonstration of God's steadfast grace and mercy for His Church. People from all parishes were streaming into Our Lady of Hope Church, gathering together as a unified body, desiring to witness and participate in the healing ministry so well organized by the leaders of CKP group. Father Fernando and Father Jeffrey Shannon were to spend their last day in Sudbury before boarding their plane back to the Philippines, that same night. They were somewhat delayed from Toronto due to the fires raging in the French River area. This delay definitely allowed the leaders to get the congregation spiritually and mentally ready for the Healing ministry. When Fr, Fernando and Fr. Jeffrey arrived, the church was packed with many of the sick and the suffering from many churches. Most were definitely believers, others had accepted to come out of curiosity only.

Upon arriving, Father Jeffrey Shannon introduced Father Fernando, who without any further delay addressed the Church. He first made it clear that his gift of healing was beyond that of his human capability. He can heal others but never himself. His gift is for the people. There was nothing he had done to earn it. He became aware of the power of God flowing though him, as he was a teenage boy. However, he confessed to have resisted the gift, and decided to pursue his career in Chemistry, until finally, through the constant nudging of the Holy Spirit, he surrendered to the Lord who also was calling him to priesthood. He was convinced that the gift of healing had simply been given to him, not earned, not for himself, but for the growth of the Church of Christ. It was to strengthen, deepen and purify the faith of God's people through their deeper appreciation of Jesus' miraculous works. He declared himself only as an instrument in God's Almighty hands. Still as a young priest, he himself was amazed by how the healing power of God was channelling through him. As he totally surrendered and accepted this gift fully, and began to witness to men and women who professed that they had experienced instant healing or felt something inexplicable when he had touched the parts in their body that needed healing. Our living God, supernaturally and miraculously was healing His children from all walks of life and far reached areas of the Philippines. Some had life-threatening diseases, terminal illnesses, physical disabilities, mental problems, or spiritual blockages. For this reason, his gift had to be shared, and Father Fernandez accepted the call of his Superior who asked him to travel around the world to touch as many as God allowed him.

We, in turn on July 31, were deeply in awe, and graced by the many who were touched and healed by Father Fernando. The healing power of God was evidenced once again, being channelled through him. Many of those present expressed heartfelt joy and those experiencing such manifested power of God, were applauding, praising, and blessing the Lord as they witnessed the manifested agility of people pushing their wheelchair, walking unaided, or holding high their cane as they expressed they had no more pain, or being full of joy or that their knee or back pains had dissipated. Many of the believers were in awe. Indeed, the gifts and calling of God are irrevocable, as proclaimed in Romans 11:29.

After the healing ministry, Father Fernando, visibly exhausted, but radiant with love was still expressing thanks to God's manifested power. We were privileged to talk to many people after the healing ministry. Many expressed agreements with Father Fernando that if we would follow and obey God's Word, we would all be granted an extension to our life. The Lord is forever willing to heal those who ask with a contrite heart.

Healing Ministry with Father Fernando Suarez, MMMP

Here are some of the points I remember about Father Fernando addressing the people before the healing ministry started. It is worth to remember, as it can be still be a channel of healing if we obey God's Word. In fact in Exodus 23: 25-26 it is expressed this way: "Serve the Lord your God. He will bless the bread and the water and remove all sickness away." Father Fernando said that the Lord wants His people to be happy. He wants them to show compassion, love, understanding, empathy and for everyone to enjoy their gift of life. This is what Jesus taught us as well. Happiness is the best gift anyone could give themselves. Enjoy life with its challenges. Show and express love, joy, and peace and leave the rest to the Holy Spirit's workings with those we love: our spouse, our children, our friends, our neighbours, and even our enemies. Stop hurting one another, slandering, judging... it only produces anxiety, bitterness, unforgiveness, insecurities, and hurts because, worst of all, it festers and makes us sick. Instead, open our ears and eyes to the blessings God gives us daily and be happy by perfecting our relationship with God and neighbours and above all, be thankful and stop complaining, cramping. Don't be grumpy or cranky.

I would say that 99% of people who heard Fr. Fernando talking, did receive some form of healing either physically and/or spiritually. Father Fernando who fatherly presented himself to us, convinced many of us through his humourous, personal touch and warm nature especially when he used his own cellular phone and pretended to take a picture of all the sad looking people. He told us that many of those sad, unforgiving faces would not be healed today. The Lord wants us to be happy first. He said that freedom would come for many more who did not experience healing in a tangible way, if only they would allow the healing of the Spirit in their hearts first. The Lord requires and asks us to first forgive and be happy. He said that many more ailments would be healed spiritually if we only would obey the Word of the Lord. (Ezekiel 36 says it this way: The Lord will take away your heart of stone and replace it with a heart of flesh and many would know He is their God).

Let us keep one another in prayer and do not forget our priests as well. We are all being transformed as a body of Christ and must keep unity at all cost. Thank God for His steadfast love, grace and mercy! And for gracing us with the visit of one of His chosen servants.

AN INVITATION TO THE LIFE IN THE SPIRIT SEMINAR

Dear Friends in Christ,

There are many ways of expressing our spiritual life, and since our spirituality is something alive and growing, it needs to be constantly nourished and nurtured. Each person who has been reborn into Christ through the waters of Baptism is in need of guidance to insure that this life grows within him/her. This guidance is provided by God our Father, through both public and private prayer, through the Sacred Scriptures, through the teachings of the Church, through the Sacraments and through the mutual sharing with one another.

The Life in the Spirit Seminar is an opportunity for Catholics to share their faith, their trust and their love in and through Christ. This sharing provides the channels through which the Spirit flows, bringing the gifts of the Lord to His people. The Seminars strive to speak of the basics of our Catholic life and of how we should go about living that life, and are designed to be the beginning, only the first step in a completely new way of life lived in the power of the Holy Spirit.

The seminar will be held on Saturday mornings from 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. The dates are Oct. 20, 27 & Nov. 3, 10 at Our Lady of Hope Church, 591 Brennan Rd., Sudbury, Ont. It is important that you attend all Saturday mornings. The fee for the 4 Saturday mornings is $10.00.

If you wish to attend the Life in the Spirit Seminar, please come to the prayer meeting on Thursday night to obtain a form and register in person. You may also contact us by e-mail at ckprayergroup@bell.net. The last day to register is September 30, 2018.

“If you know that The Lord loves you, if you have turned your life over to Jesus, the Saviour, King and Lord of mankind, you have been blessed by God in an incredible way. You have been given a treasure that the whole world’s wealth cannot buy or equal.”

Father Bob Bedard Companions Of The Cross

Please say this prayer daily

Lord, I open the door to my heart and I invite You in.
I surrender everything to You.
I give You permission to do with me as You so wish this day.
I love You dearly, and I give YOU my life.

*Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.*

“When disciples of Christ are transparent in heart and sensitive in life, they bring the Lord’s light to the places where they live and work.”
– Pope Francis

A Prayer to Our Lady of Seven Sorrows

O Most Holy Virgin, Mother of our Lord Jesus Christ: by the overwhelming grief you experienced when you witnessed the martyrdom, the crucifixion and death of your divine Son, look upon me with eyes of compassion and awaken in my heart a tender commiseration for those sufferings, as well as a sincere detestation of my sins, in order that being disengaged from all undue affection for the passing joys of this earth, I may sigh after the eternal Jerusalem and that henceforward all my thoughts and all my actions may be directed towards this one most desirable object.

Honour, glory and love to our divine Lord Jesus and to the holy and immaculate Mother of God.
Amen.
